Happenings at Ear Works

Ear Works would like to welcome Nicole Rubin and Lynn Alampi to the practice. Nicole joins the practice with over twelve years of experience. She received her Master's degree with distinction from Hofstra in 1996. Nicole is licensed to practice Audiology in New York State and has her certificate of clinical competence from ASHA. She will be working primarily in the Lake Success and Port Jefferson locations. Lynn received her Masters of Arts degree from St. John's University in 2005 and has been practicing audiology for 3 years. She will be receiving her doctorate degree in February 2009 from SALUS University. Lynn is licensed to practice Audiology in New York State and has her certificate of clinical competence from ASHA. Lynn will be working in the Garden City, Manhasset and Lake Success offices.

We are proud to announce the opening of 2 new offices in December. One is located in Nesconset, Suffolk County and the other is located in Manhasset, Nassau County. If one of our newer locations is more convenient for you, then let us know and we can transfer your records.

We would like to share your thoughts in our newsletter. Do you have any humorous anecdotes related to hearing or hearing loss? If so, drop us a note and we'll share it here.

Oticon • Dual

Oticon introduces the Dual, which is a combination of both appealing design and performance. The Dual comes in 2 Series: the Dual Mini and the Dual Connect. While the Dual Mini may be small and discreet, it is still loaded with the latest advances in sound processing. With the Dual Connect, binaurally fit units will work together to synchronize the sound-clarifying systems. The Dual Connect is also able to be paired to Bluetooth enabled devices.

Upcoming Events at Ear Works

- Oticon Open House in March at the Lake Success office with Dr. Elizabeth Monaco.
- Grand Opening Events at the Nesconset and Manhasset offices.

Evening Hours Now Available in our Lake Success Office

We will now be offering evening hours at our Lake Success office until 8:00 pm on Thursdays. Please call in advance to schedule an appointment.
